

satellite radio should not be restricted. We pay a monthly service and we should not have any restrictions. When TV first came out laws were tried to be passed to stop TV from becomming.. then FM was next and the same thing and now sat radio and now again... when will this end? it is not like its a free service you have to buy the service.. just like cable..this is not needed